The image shows a portion of a handwritten musical score on a five-line staff. The notation includes several measures of music. The first measure on the right contains a single quarter note on the second line. The second measure contains a quarter rest. The third measure contains a quarter note on the second line. The fourth measure contains a quarter note on the second line with a sharp sign (#) above it. The fifth measure contains a quarter note on the second line with a sharp sign (#) above it. The sixth measure contains a quarter note on the second line with a sharp sign (#) above it. The seventh measure contains a quarter note on the second line with a sharp sign (#) above it. The eighth measure contains a quarter note on the second line with a sharp sign (#) above it. The word "rall" is written in cursive above the staff, starting at the fourth measure and extending to the eighth measure. The notation is dark ink on aged, slightly textured paper.
